Jon Husted, Lt. Governor

Lydia L. Mihalik, Director

The Ohio Development Services Agency assists Ohio companies with entering new export markets or increasing their exports.

Market Your Business Internationally

The International Market Access Grant for Exporters (IMAGE) program, funded through the State Trade Expansion Program (STEP), is designed to increase exports and create jobs. STEP is funded through the Small Business Administration’s (SBA) Office of International Trade, which provides guidance on the IMAGE grant that offers financial assistance for small businesses to promote their products and services in international markets. The grant provides a 50 percent reimbursement, up to $10,000 per fiscal year, for qualifying activities.

Hire an Export Intern

The Ohio Export Internship Program is a partnership between the Ohio Development Services Agency, Cleveland State University, University of Dayton, The Ohio State University and Youngstown State University. The program matches students who have completed export-focused coursework with Ohio companies that are looking to increase their current export initiatives. Participating small to medium-sized companies are eligible to receive a 50 percent reimbursement for intern wages, up to $3,600.

economy and fueling job creation.*

Expand Your Business Relationships Worldwide

The Ohio Development Services Agency works with representatives internationally to provide opportunities for Ohio businesses to increase export sales and create jobs through the International Market Support Program.

Many small businesses don't have the local market expertise or relationships to expand their business in the international market. The in-market representatives assist with providing detailed market research and matchmaking with potential customers.
