Local Government Innovation Council Announces Awards

The Ohio Development Services Agency awarded 10 grants and one loan to assist efficiency and collaboration projects across the state, totaling $860,034.

The Local Government Innovation Fund consists of two programs, the Local Government Innovation Program (LGIP) and the Local Government Efficiency Program (LGEP). Together these programs assist communities with shared services and efficiency projects in all aspects of operations.

“By eliminating unnecessary costs and sharing services, communities save money and become more efficient,” said David Goodman, director of the Ohio Development Services Agency.
