The Ohio Development Services Agency Announces Round 9 Ohio Historic Preservation Tax Credit Awards

COLUMBUS – Today, the Ohio Development Services Agency awarded $35.9 million in Ohio Historic Preservation Tax Credits to 23 owners and applicants planning to rehabilitate 45 historic buildings in nine communities across the state. The projects are expected to leverage more than $252 million in private investments.

“The Historic Preservation Tax Credit puts empty buildings back into the economic cycle, creating jobs through construction activities and reoccupation of the buildings,” said Christiane Schmenk, director of the Ohio Development Services Agency. “This program has saved some of the state’s most significant historic structures.”

The awards were made possible through renewal of the program in the state’s Fiscal Year 2012-2013 budget. The budget, signed by Governor Kasich last year, allocates $60 million annually to the Ohio Historic Preservation Tax Credit program. Projects that were awarded tax credits must complete the rehabilitation work in accordance with the U.S. Secretary of the Interior’s Standards for Rehabilitation before the credits are issued to the building owner or long-term tenant.

According to a Cleveland State University study released in May 2011, $1 million in tax credits generates $8 million in construction spending, $40 million in total economic activity and nearly 400 jobs from construction and operations.
